

A vibrant collage of London landmarks. The top half features a red double-decker bus in the foreground, with St. Paul's Cathedral and the London Eye in the background. Big Ben is visible on the left. The bottom half shows a large, ornate building, possibly a theater or concert hall, with a large Union Jack flag displayed on its facade. Big Ben is also visible on the right. The word "London" is written in large red letters across the top, and "saleh travel" is written in white letters at the bottom.
